NEWZFLASH

● Letter from the Pastoral Search Committee

Greetings Zion's Church family!

We are excited to announce that on February 2, 2025, the Congregation confirmed Rev. Dr. Roy Kindelberger II (Pastor Roy), as the next Senior Pastor of Zion's Church. We would also like to welcome his wife Samantha, their daughter Ivah, and son Judah. They are excited about our church and its ministries, both for himself as a Pastor, and as a family who will be raising their children in this church. Pastor Roy's official start date is yet to be determined, as they first need to sell their current home and relocate to this area. We will make an announcement to the congregation when plans are finalized.

Pastor Roy's experience, education, passions, skills, and doctrinal alignment made him an excellent choice as the next leader for our congregation. His commitment to traditional Christian teachings and a heart for outreach was evident throughout the selection process. He values compassionate shepherding and helping people develop a practical lifestyle to spread the gospel in a way that feels natural. Let us all pray for a smooth transition and that Pastor Roy can guide our church into a new era of spiritual growth and reaching people for Christ, building upon the church that Pastor Randy has grown with the help of God over the past four decades.

We will soon begin planning a celebration of Pastor Randy's ministry and retirement, so keep your eyes open for an invitation! Also, please join us in praying for Randy and Deanna as they prepare for this next chapter in their life.

It was a privilege and honor for our team to conduct this search. Thank you for praying for us, the church, Pastor Randy and Deanna, and Pastor Roy, and thank you trusting us with this incredible responsibility.

Blessings on our journey ahead,

Zion's Church Pastoral Search Team
